

CSAAPT Business Meeting Spring 2018 Meeting

Piedmont Virginia Community College, Charlottesville, VA

Conducting: Rachele Dominguez, President

Treasurer's report from Brett Taylor:

Income from Fall 2017 Meeting: $955.07

Expenses from the Fall 2017 Meeting: $688.00

Wells Fargo Account starting balance: $11,399.82 Wells Fargo Account ending balance: $11,666.89

Minutes of the Fall 2017 meeting were approved.

Future Meeting Locations:

1. Fall 2018 Tidewater Community College, Virginia Beach, VA November 10
2. Possible locations: St Alban's School, Washington DC (possibly Spring 2019)
Radford University, Radford, VA(possibly Fall 2020) (Brett Taylor, contact)
Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, VA (Tatsu Takeuchi, contact)
James Madison University, Harrisonburg, VA
Reynolds Community College, Richmond, VA (John Ochab, contact)
St John's college, Annapolis, MD

Prizes Awarded at this Spring Meeting

Frank Haig Prize: Tatsu Takeuchi, Virginia Tech

Best Demo: David Wright, Tidewater Community College

Best Student Paper: Alex Keller, Randolph-Macon College

There was a discussion about what the section should do at the National Meeting. We will have a CSAAPT booth.

Rachele announced that the Constitutional amendment to remove term limits for the secretary and treasurer was approved in the e-mail vote. Brett Taylor was then elected as Treasurer.

Deonna Woolard gave a Section Rep report.

It was noted that we are still looking for a representative to the Washington Academy of Sciences.

The Treasurer noted that we will probably shift our host for our website

We discussed the possibility of qualifying to award teacher accreditation points for High School teachers who attend the section meeting.

Rachele brought up the question about whether we should do more as a section. One possibility is to have a day-long workshop in conjunction with our section meeting. .

There was a discussion about teachers in residence at Universities, such as Virginia Tech and JMU , and how they could be involved.

Submitted,

David Wright, Secretary